

Envision Your Life

Pre-Call Homework

Note from Olive:

Hi!

This questionnaire is designed to give you clarity before we have our Get Acquainted Call together. It will also help me understand you better and how best I can serve you.

These questions may be deeper than most questions you answer in your day-to-day life. But believe me, you'll begin to appreciate this focus and honesty once you witness the transformations it can bring. (In fact, I can always spot the people who are NOT ready for clarity when they don't send me the questionnaire back! They avoid clarity like the plague!)

Please fill this out and email it to me to knightpros@gmail.com at least 24 hours before your call. Please note that you are NOT eligible to have your Get Acquainted Call with me unless I receive this questionnaire back. (Sorry! But I require a high level of accountability! I find that people appreciate me for it!)

I'm so excited to talk with you soon!

Blessings,

Olive
